

January in Yorkton is for Active Living

There is something for everyone to enjoy!

Check out the back for more information and a list of activities available.

You did You know?

With the current milder temperatures, you may have noticed skunks in your yard this winter. If a skunk has become a problem, do not try to catch it yourself because you may get sprayed.

Call a professional pest control company to help deal with skunk or any pest problems.

Public Skating in Yorkton

Don't let the winter weather stop you from enjoying a walk in the snow!

- The City of Yorkton walking trails can be used throughout the winter.
- Located at Brodie Recreation Corridor, Highway 10 East, Logan Green, Mayhew Avenue, Morrison Park & Winchester Trail.
- Trails are checked biweekly and are maintained pending weather conditions.

Yorkton Parks TECH TIP

How to Prevent Frostbite

- Check the temperature and limit your time outdoors if it's very cold.
- Layer your clothing in three layers. For clothes next to the skin, choose a material that will help keep you dry. The second layer should be made of wool or fleece and the third should be wind and waterproof.
- Wear mittens rather than gloves.
- Cover your ears with a warm hat.
