

Queen Street Water Treatment Plant

- Yorkton is the largest urban center in the province that relies solely on ground water
- There are 16 wells within a 10 km radius of the City that provide water to the treatment plant
- The water treatment plant can produce 22,000,000 liters of water per day
- The average person uses 230 liters per day
- The Queen Street Water Treatment Plant reservoir has a capacity of 18,000,000 liters