

Queen Street Water Treatment Plant

Yorkton is the largest urban center in the province that relies solely on ground water

There are 13 wells within a 10 km radius of the City that provide water to the treatment plant

The water treatment plant can produce 22,000,000 liters of water per day

The average person uses 230 liters per day

The Queen Street Water Treatment Plant reservoir has a capacity of 18,000,000 liters fast facts