Harvest Meats Sponsors Gallagher Centre Concession

The City of Yorkton, in partnership with Harvest Meats, announced today that the Concession at the Gallagher Centre will now be known as the Harvest Grill.

This sponsorship agreement is for three years, with the option for renewal for a further three years at that time. As part of the agreement, a new menu will offer a range of Harvest Meats products.

“Everyone knows food is integral to an operation as extensive and successful as the Gallagher Centre. Our Concession here in the foyer is no exception to that, and I’m so pleased to be able to announce today that Harvest Meats is partnering with the City in sponsorship of our new Harvest Grill,” said Mayor Bob Maloney.

Along with the sponsorship agreement, a new chef has been hired to oversee the concession, and for the first time, clients will have the option to use both bank and credit cards for their purchases, as well as cash.

“We are very proud to support both our City and the Gallagher Centre, and we think this new sponsorship is a great fit for our company,” said Harvest Meats Vice-President and General Manager Geoff Propp. “The Gallagher Centre is one of the best all-encompassing recreation and convention facilities in the province, and we are happy to support this amazing facility.”

“Harvest Meats is a cornerstone of the Yorkton business community, and we look forward to the new tastes and offerings at the Harvest Grill. Thank you Harvest Meats for continuing to support our community by taking on this important sponsorship role here at the Gallagher Centre,” said the Mayor.
