

The Flag of Remembrance was raised at City Hall Wednesday for Remembrance Week by Mayor Bob Maloney, Councillor Ross Fisher and local veterans. Each year, across Canada, this symbolic act recognizes our Veterans and those currently involved in combat and peacekeeping roles around the world. It is to remind us of the freedoms we enjoy because of their service.