

Yorkton Film Festival Awarded Saskatchewan Arts Award for Leadership

Yorkton Film Festival was recently awarded the Saskatchewan Arts Award for Leadership Organization. The award is presented to an organization engaged in the arts in Saskatchewan that demonstrates outstanding leadership and commitment to the advancement, presentation, and promotion of the arts and artists through exemplary programming, governance, operations administration and innovation. Designed by Jody Greenman-Barber, the award was presented by Keith Hayward (left), co-chair of the Yorkton Film Festival, to Yorkton Mayor Bob Maloney during the Monday November 7, 2016 Council Meeting, for display at City Hall.
