

Award from Sask. Snowmobile Assoc.

The City of Yorkton received an award from the Saskatchewan Snowmobile Association for Outstanding Promotion and Development of Snowmobiling in the province. The award was presented at the November 19 Council Meeting, and recognizes the city for allowing two snowmobile access trails into the city to provide riders access to food, fuel and lodging.

Jason Popowich, President of the Yorkton Sno-Riders Inc. presents the award to Mayor Bob Maloney.
